Survivors' right to memory: "Survivors' right to memory" refers to the right of victims and survivors to publicly present evidence of the episode of abuse, revictimisation or isolating violence they were victims of. Any attempt to silence them, to hide or distort the real facts is a revictimisation.

Reference:

Puigvert, L., Joanpere, M., Racionero-Plaza, S., Melgar, P., Flecha, R. (2016). Survivors' right to memory. This work is licensed under the Creative Commons AttributionNonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International License. To view a copy of this license, visit https://creativecommons.Org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0/